

Exploring the Wonderful World of Science

Total marks: 31 · Questions: 8

Instructions: Answer the questions to the best of your ability. Choose the correct option for MCQs and fill in the blanks for FILL_BLANK questions. Write complete sentences for SHORT_ANSWER and LONG_ANSWER questions.

Q1. Science is a way of thinking, observing, and doing things to understand the world we live in and to uncover the secrets of the _____. [2 marks]

Q2. What is the first step in the scientific method? [3 marks]

- (A) Observe
- (B) Hypothesise
- (C) Experiment
- (D) Infer

Q3. What is curiosity and why is it important in science? [5 marks]

Q4. Science is only done in laboratories. [1 mark]

- (A) True
- (B) False

Q5. The scientific method involves observing, questioning, hypothesising, experimenting, and _____. [2 marks]

Q6. Describe a situation where you used the scientific method to solve a problem. What steps did you take and what did you learn from the experience? [10 marks]

Q7. What is the main reason why scientists work in teams? [3 marks]

- (A) To share the workload
- (B) To learn from each other's expertise
- (C) To have more fun
- (D) To get more funding

Q8. Why is it important to be curious and ask questions in science? [5 marks]

Answer Key

Exploring the Wonderful World of Science

Q1. Science is a way of thinking, observing, and doing things to understand the world we live in and to uncover the secrets of the _____.

Answer: universe

FILL_BLANK · EASY · 6-SCI-WOS-01

Q2. What is the first step in the scientific method?

Answer: Observe

MCQ · MEDIUM · 6-SCI-WOS-03

Q3. What is curiosity and why is it important in science?

Answer: Curiosity is the desire to learn and understand the world around us. It is important in science because it drives us to ask questions and seek answers, which leads to new discoveries and a better understanding of the world.

SHORT_ANSWER · MEDIUM · 6-SCI-WOS-01

Q4. Science is only done in laboratories.

Answer: False

TRUE_FALSE · EASY · 6-SCI-WOS-01

Q5. The scientific method involves observing, questioning, hypothesising, experimenting, and _____.

Answer: inferring

FILL_BLANK · EASY · 6-SCI-WOS-03

Q6. Describe a situation where you used the scientific method to solve a problem. What steps did you take and what did you learn from the experience?

Answer: The student should describe a situation where they used the scientific method, such as trying to fix a broken toy or figuring out why a plant is not growing. They should explain the steps they took, including observing, questioning, hypothesising, experimenting, and inferring. They should also discuss what they learned from the experience, such as the importance of curiosity and critical thinking.

LONG_ANSWER · HARD · 6-SCI-WOS-04

Q7. What is the main reason why scientists work in teams?

Answer: To learn from each other's expertise

MCQ · MEDIUM · 6-SCI-WOS-01

Q8. Why is it important to be curious and ask questions in science?

Answer: Being curious and asking questions is important in science because it drives us to learn and understand the world around us. It helps us to identify problems and find solutions, and it leads to new discoveries and a better understanding of the world.

SHORT_ANSWER · MEDIUM · 6-SCI-WOS-01